

Merit Bridge Project for Wat Weruwan High School

Please become a part of the contribution for building 9-inch image of the First Buddha adorned with regalia (covered with gold leaf) to be enshrined as the principle Buddha image in the chamber of Wat Weruwan High School, Sahatsakhan district, Kalasin province, as well as to collect donation for raising educational-support budget for the the school. This project was initiated to improve the education quality of the schools' students in a local area of Thailand together with emphasizing to implant them with morality.

Sahatsakhan district and its surrounding area is poor, which is the reason that causes the children to quit school and help their parents to work with necessity. Wat Weruwan High School was established on May 1, 2012 under the license number 04020/2/2555 by the Office of the Private Education Commission, Ministry of Education, Thailand.

Most of the population in the

The foundation was brought up By Venerable Phrakhrusitthi warakhom (Phra Ajarn Nikhom Nikhomvaro), the abbot of Wat Weruwan and the Buddhist monk leader of Sahatsakhan district in Dhammayut Nikaya.

This project has been carried out since 2004 without charging any study fee, giving chances to the school students from the poor family in the surrounding area to be educated, at the same time, to reduce the social problems brought by the youth in the backcountry district, especially lack of morality and fund.

Currently, in the initial state, the school is running without any support from the government. Donation supports are needed for paying teachers' living expenses, as well as instructional media and equipment cost at the school.

In addition, the donation will be used to support to the students' educational expenses including clothing, transportation fee, books, pencils, and other necessary stuffs.

How can you support Wat Weruwan High School?

Government Savings Bank: Sahatsakhan Branch, Thailand
 Bank Account: Wat Weruwan High School, 020-0587-6920-7

Email: konkomsan@yahoo.co.th
 Website: weluwanlampao.com

